

I greatly enjoy the regional FM translator radio service we are receiving from a national and regional broadcaster. This service is especially important in mountainous areas like Russellville and the area of the Ozark Mountains in Arkansas. Please consider the effect you will have on many of the people in rural Arkansas if you change the current broadcasting rules and license issuance rules.